Re timing McCord's letter to Sirica, signed Sussman piece Wx Post 5/3/73, perhapw in error, says Sirica got and read this letter the next day, 3/20. It also says that while Sirica did not read it in public then he did read it on receipt. The difference of a day may or may not be significant.

To this should be added the relevance to the content of McCord's charges to Hunt's demands, the last of which was made 3/16/73.

There was no doubt that Hunt did not require this money for his lawyers, family or anything else because regardless of his earlier financial situation he had gotten a quarter of a milliomn from Dorothy's insurance.

And what his lawyer got can't be regarded as legal fees only.
